Pastor's Corner

I am grateful for the leadership and guidance of the Interim Advisory Group that I meet with regularly. They include: Jane Kawazoe, Reiko Masutomi, Ruth Nino-Du Ponte, and Eric Tanouye. We are working together on some projects that you will read more about below—as they assist me in planning congregation's work for the Interim Time. If you have questions please contact one of us!

The congregation's work in this Interim Time includes: 1. Coming to Terms with CHC's History, 2. Discovering a New Identity, 3. Looking at leadership – are there changes we want to make? 4. Renewing our Denominational Linkages, and 5. Commitment to New Directions in Ministry. We begin by looking at Church of the Holy Cross's history!

Jiro Okabe, first CHC Minister

Looking Back to Look Ahead: Sunday, August 24, following worship we'll share a potluck lunch. As we gather around tables we'll get to know how persons came to CHC and why you stayed. We'll learn about the history of our congregation through a timeline. Please bring mementos from your time at CHC – photos, newspaper clippings, or bulletins for example. Please bring copies – or have Dennis Lin make copies for you in advance, so you may keep your original. Weddings, baptisms, confirmations, funerals, mission in the community and beyond, events for youth, women, men, IYAA, and more!

What has been moving for you in the life of CHC? How has your faith deepened? We will celebrate accomplishments and tell stories from the life of CHC. Table leaders will assist in our conversation. You will be invited to place your significant events on our timeline. We'll share stories and learn from one another. I look forward to the learning and laughter! We plan to put the timeline in the rear of the sanctuary following this event.

Sunday, September 14, one of our missionaries to Japan, Martha Mensendiek, will speak in worship. She works at Doshisha University, a Christian university, with a history of being in solidarity with the poor and discriminated class in Japanese society, as well as in the wider world. It has a School of Theology as well as a Department of Social Welfare – both of which have a long history in Japan. Martha teaches and helps build awareness about the world. She appreciates working with minorities and women, including migrant workers and minorities, as well as women exploited in the sex industry. Following worship we'll have refreshments in Building of Faith.

Save these upcoming dates for fun, food and fellowship which will follow worship. These times together will further our Interim work: Sundays, September 28, October 5, 12, 19. We'll reflect on who God calls CHC to be and what God calls us to do. What does God have in mind for the future of CHC? Through prayer and sharing we'll consider what God is longing for in this wonderful church! We need your help in this process! Please plan to attend!

This Sunday please return your fish and loaves we passed out on August 3. Write on them occasions when you've seen God working through you or others care for persons who are vulnerable or in need! We'll put them up in the rear of the sanctuary. I'll have blank loaves and fish if you need them. A few weeks ago I asked you about your hopes and dreams for the future of CHC. I will share your responses in the next Messenger!

Peace & Joy,
Mary

CRANE PEACE PROJECT

WHY are we doing this? Our inspiration for the "Cranes for Peace." Lily Inouye, received a link about WHY we are doing this. It is a powerful story – excerpts from a book by Akiko Mikamo about the devastation caused by the atomic bomb to father's family, home and "everything else" but we learn about a forgiving heart, so generous that it is indescribable.

Lily said that she "was so touched and had difficulty breathing while reading this and praised God for the light we draw from darkness. I am grateful for receiving this as we are participants in the midst of folding origami cranes for the 199,000 Cranes Project to be sent – in remembrance of those who were affected by the atomic bomb dropped in Hiroshima and Nagasaki. Again, thank you. We live by faith, Pastor Mary."

Shinji Mikamo lost everything when the nuclear bomb was dropped on Hiroshima, except his father's watch. He did not blame the Americans for the cataclysm though – and later, when the watch was stolen, he showed his daughter once again his powers of forgiveness.

As a child, when the family bathed together, in the Japanese way, Akiko Mikamo never asked about her father's missing ear or the scars on her parents bodies. "I didn't think about it," she says. "It was very natural."

Her mother never spoke about the bomb – as a traditional Japanese woman she "learned to swallow her pain so as not to burden others". But Akiko grew up listening to her father's stories of that day, which she has now collected in a book. Above all, he always taught her it was wrong to hate:

"Americans are not to blame, the war is to blame. People's unwillingness to understand those with different values – that's to blame."

The pilot of the Enola Gay had only been following orders, he pointed out, and risking his own life in the process.

Go to http://www.bbc.co.uk/news/special/2014/newsspec_8079/index.html for the whole story.

THANK YOU to those who have folded and still folding the cranes.... We have over 5,000 cranes!!! More paper is available at the church office or at the back of the sanctuary. No deadline so if you need to, take a break!

Choir Practice begins August 24

Katherine Wilson, who has been the choir's accompanist for the past two years, will now serve as the interim Music Coordinator/Choir Director for the Church of the Holy Cross. Choir practice will begin at 8:30 a.m. on Sunday, August 24. Na Leo Ni'o Lani will sing their first song on Sunday, August 31. Please join us in this important music ministry of our church!

Kait is a Performing Arts Major with Music Concentration at the UH Hilo. She plans to graduate in Spring 2015. She was the vocal director for UHH's spring 2014 production of Miss Saigon as well as their rehearsal accompanist. She has been in KDEN's summer production of Ruddigore and Beauty and the Beast and the UHH's production of Spoon River and Every Day's a Musical. Besides teaching private vocal lessons and playing the piano, she plays the French horn.

Recognizing that music is an integral part of the Church's worship service and ministry, the Board of Deacons drafted a new comprehensive music ministry that was just approved by the Church Council. Kait says that from the first time she came to the Church of the Holy Cross and was told "You are welcome here!" she has always felt welcomed and desires to serve the church through her musical talents.
