WE GATHER TO WORSHIP GOD

Prelude: In the Peaceful Garden – Baptiste-Troutman Kayleen Yuda

Call to Worship

Leader: When Jesus sat at table with his friends, they gathered to recall the mighty acts of God which won the freedom of their oppressed people.

People: This evening we recall the mighty acts of God which won our freedom from the oppressions of sin and death.

Leader: Our Savior did not lead an exodus, or make himself a general, or guide a nation to a Promised Land.

People: He gave his friends the bread and wine of Passover by which they might remember him, then walked into the shadows of betrayal and of death.

Leader: This evening, let us fill our hearts with Christ, and join him at the table.

People: This evening, let us fill our hearts with Christ, and join him in the shadows.

Opening Hymn #345: Let All Mortal Flesh Keep Silence (v. 1-3)

Prayer of Confession:

Giver of Life, from ancient time you call us to yourself. In ways too numerous to mention, we fail to respond. Forgive us, we pray. Our limited understanding of culture gets in the way of fellowship with those different from ourselves. Our limited vision of community gets in the way of your call to accept the cost and joy of discipleship, to seek justice and peace for all. Replace our arrogance,

Merciful One, with the humility and caring service Jesus modeled, for truly we are not greater than our Teacher and Savior. Amen.

THE DARKNESS

The Lord's Prayer in unison:

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever and ever. Amen.
