

O Sing a Song of Bethlehem

Louis F. Benson

O sing a song of Bethlehem, of shepherds watching there, and of the news that came to them from angels in the air:
The light that shone on Bethlehem fills all the world today;
of Jesus' birth and peace on earth the angels sing always.

O sing a song of Nazareth, of days of joy and sun,
O sing of fragrant flowers' breath, and of the sinless One:
For now the flowers of Nazareth in every heart may grow;
now spreads the fame of Jesus' name on all the winds that blow.

O sing a song of Galilee, of lake and woods and hill, of One who walked upon the sea and bade its waves be still:
For though, like waves on Galilee, rough seas of trouble roll, when faith has heard the Savior's word, falls peace upon the soul.

O sing a song of Calvary;, it's glory and dismay, of One who hung upon the tree, and took our sins away:
For Christ who dies on Calvary is risen from the grave;
God's sovereign Child, who reconciled, is mighty now to save.
